More than 170 Restaurants Serve up Free Breakfasts from today in CLP Power Elderly Yum Cha Programme

Tens of thousands of free dim sum breakfasts will be served up from today under the Elderly Yum Cha community programme organised by CLP Power Hong Kong Limited (CLP Power). With coupons and their senior citizens cards, elderly people can from today until 30 June 2016 enjoy two dim sum options at more than 170 participating restaurants in 14 districts. As well as enjoying free breakfasts, the programme offers senior citizens an opportunity to expand their social networks.

The Elderly Yum Cha programme is run in partnership with four major catering associations: The Association of Restaurant Managers, The Association for Hong Kong Catering Services Management Limited, the Hong Kong Federation of Restaurants & Related Trades, and the Institution of Dining Art, and is supported by more than 360 members of 14 District Councils in Kowloon, the New Territories and outlying islands. Some 80,000 breakfast coupons were distributed to 40,000 elderly people aged 65 and above with senior citizen cards. They can enjoy two dim sum options from a standard menu with the tea charge and 10 per cent service charge waived on weekdays before 11am, excluding public holidays, at more than 170 participating restaurants. A HK$2 million fund provided by CLP shareholders has been set aside for the programme. Please refer to the appendix for details of the participating restaurants.

CLP Power Managing Director Mr Paul Poon said: “CLP always cares for the elderly and is committed to helping them through a range of community programmes. In May and June on Mother’s Day and Father’s Day, CLP will have more than 50 dim sum breakfast gatherings with senior citizens at locations across the city. The programme aims to generate more positive energy for elderly people as well as giving us an opportunity to provide them with tips on the smarter use of electricity at home.”

The Elderly Yum Cha programme has received an overwhelming response and all 80,000 breakfast coupons have already been distributed. For public enquiries, there is a dedicated hotline on 2678 6241 and an email at elderlyyumcha2016@clp.com.hk.
