Home Affairs Department Visits CLP Headquarters Fostering Exchange on Innovative Business Development and Strengthening Community Collaboration

CLP Power Hong Kong Limited (CLP Power) today (8 October) welcomed Ms Priscilla To, Director of Home Affairs, along with Deputy Directors of Home Affairs and District Officers from the Home Affairs Department (HAD), for a visit to its headquarters in Kai Tak. The visit deepened HAD's understanding of CLP Power's latest business developments, smart innovation projects, and community support initiatives, fostered exchanges and collaboration between CLP Power and HAD in serving the community.

CLP Power Managing Director Mr Joseph Law and the management team presented the Company's business development, including its decarbonisation strategy aligned with Hong Kong's goal of achieving carbon neutrality before 2050, and the intelligent management system Grid-V which further enhances the grid resilience and reliability. Both parties also exchanged views on CLP Power's community support initiatives and its close collaboration with District Offices, District Councillors, and Care Teams. The discussion covered cross-departmental coordination in response to contingencies, as well as the promotion of community projects such as the "Home Electrical Safety and Energy Efficiency & Community Care Talks".

In addition to touring the headquarters' facilities, CLP Power introduced the emergency response arrangements of CLP Community Support Team and showcased "CLP Power Kits", which include portable high-capacity power banks and rechargeable lights, demonstrating CLP Power's care and commitment to the community.

The visit further strengthened communication and ties between the HAD and CLP Power, laying a solid foundation for future collaboration in the areas of community support, emergency response, and sustainable development.
