CLP Premieres “A Century of Power” Documentary

More than 700 guests from all walks of the community including government officials, students, business partners, representatives from the community, and shareholders of CLP Holdings Limited (CLP) on Monday attended the premiere of “A Century of Power”, a documentary about the history of CLP as part of the heritage of Hong Kong.

The Hon Mrs Carrie Lam Cheng Yuet-ngor, The Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Mr Hu Jianzhong, Deputy Commissioner of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China in the Hong Kong Special Administration Region, The Hon Sir Michael Kadoorie, Chairman of CLP, Mr William Mocatta, Chairman of CLP Power Hong Kong, Mrs Betty Yuen, Vice Chairman of CLP Power Hong Kong, and Mrs Elaine Forsgate Marden, Executive Producer of “A Century of Power”, jointly officiated at the premiere.

In her officiating speech, The Hon Mrs Carrie Lam Cheng Yuet-ngor, GBM, GBS said, “‘A Century of Power’ is not simply a documentary about CLP, but also a timely reminder of our Lion Rock Spirit which is extremely befitting this year as we celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. This is a time for us to reflect on the past and to appreciate how lovely this wonderful city is. I also want to thank the Kadoorie Family for their commitment in preserving the history and culture of Hong Kong.”

Hong Kong has been home to the Kadoorie Family for 135 years where they have been warmly welcomed and given an opportunity to prosper. In return, it has always been the Family’s belief in making a contribution to the social and economic wellbeing of their fellow citizens. For this reason, CLP decided to commission the production of “A Century of Power” to pay tribute to the city and inspire the younger generation to appreciate history.

Sir Michael said in his opening remarks, “History provides the basis of our shared heritage, culture and values. It helps us appreciate our past and shapes our future. I hope we can all learn more about Hong Kong and CLP through ‘A Century of Power’ and be inspired to build a better home for the generations to come.”

As such, a dedicated session with fun videos and interactive games was held for about 200 secondary school students before yesterday's premiere for them to get a taste of history in an engaging way. A range of publicity and engagement activities including community screenings and distribution of the film to libraries, schools and museums have also been planned to promote the importance of history preservation to a wider audience.

Mrs Elaine Marden said at the premiere, "Film is a wonderful medium. The archive film collection used in the film was vital to help illustrate the many historical changes in Hong Kong and in China. My message to everyone is not to forget our history. Hong Kong has so many stories to tell from its past, present and a view to future."

"A Century of Power" was filmed over two years with the latest 4K technology. Shooting of the documentary took place in a wide range of locations where CLP has operations such as Hong Kong, Mainland China, India and Australia. It is available in four editions and four languages.
