

17 November 2018

中華電力有限公司
CLP Power Hong Kong Limited

CLP Power Takes 250 Elders Back to Good Old Days Cinema for Senior Citizens Day Celebration

CLP Power Hong Kong Limited (CLP Power) today (17 November) hosted a Sharing the Festive Joy Senior Citizens Day Luncheon in partnership with the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals for 250 elderly guests from Kowloon City, Tsuen Wan, Shatin, and Kwun Tong. Guests enjoyed a luncheon with a theme of classic Cantonese films from the old days cinema and received energy saving tips from CLP volunteers.

CLP Power Managing Director Mr TK Chiang, Secretary for Labour and Welfare Dr Law Chi-kwong, and Tung Wah Group of Hospitals Chief Executive Mr Albert Su, together with CLP management and around 60 CLP volunteers joined in the celebration and played interactive games with guests based on classic Cantonese films. The event included performances by students from TWGHs Ko Ho Ning Memorial Primary School, TWGHs Lui Yun Choy Memorial College, and CLP volunteer. CLP Power Managing Director Mr TK Chiang and Tung Wah Group of Hospitals Chief Executive Mr Albert Su also sang for guests.

Mr Chiang said: “Through our Sharing the Festive Joy programme, our volunteers celebrate festive occasions and form friendships with many senior citizens, bringing different generations closer together. We also share useful tips on energy saving to help senior citizens live greener lifestyles and play a part in combating climate change.”

Dr Law commended CLP Power for being an enthusiastic enterprise, implementing many caring and customer-oriented community care programmes. He said, “The SAR Government has been attaching great importance to the quality of life of elderly people who have retired from their busy work days. ‘Active ageing’ is one of the principles of our elderly policy. The Government encourages seniors to take part in volunteer work and Elderly Academy courses. I am happy to see them joining us today and hope that they will continue to go out and broaden their social horizons.”

CLP Power has launched a wide range of community projects in recent years, identifying social needs and devising tailor-made programmes. Launched in 2014, the Sharing the Festive Joy programme has celebrated festivals with around 3,750 elderly and underprivileged people in partnership with a variety of community partners. This year’s programme is one of the celebration activities marking the 20th anniversary of the Social Welfare Department’s Volunteer Movement.

About CLP Power Hong Kong Limited

CLP Power Hong Kong Limited ("CLP Power") is the Hong Kong utility subsidiary wholly owned by CLP Holdings Limited, a company listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and one of the largest investor-owned power businesses in Asia. CLP Power operates a vertically integrated electricity supply business in Hong Kong, and provides a highly reliable supply of electricity and excellent customer services to 6 million people.

Photo Captions:

Photo 1

CLP Power Managing Director Mr TK Chiang says CLP volunteers have celebrated dozens of festive occasions and formed friendships with many senior citizens through the Sharing the Festive Joy programme.

Photo 2

Secretary for Labour and Welfare Dr Law Chi-kwong commends CLP Power for being an enthusiastic enterprise, implementing many caring and customer-oriented community care programmes.

Photo 3

Secretary for Labour and Welfare Dr Law Chi-kwong (second left), CLP Power Managing Director Mr TK Chiang (second right), Tung Wah Group of Hospitals Chief Executive Mr Albert Su (first right), and CLP Power Chief Corporate Development Officer Ms Quince Chong (first left) play an interactive game based on classic Cantonese films with guests.

Photo 4

Secretary for Labour and Welfare Dr Law Chi-kwong (third right), CLP Power Managing Director Mr TK Chiang (second right), Tung Wah Group of Hospitals Chief Executive Mr Albert Su (first right), and CLP Power Chief Corporate Development Officer Ms Quince Chong (first left) buy movie ticket from an elderly guest at a classic cinema.

Photo 5

CLP Power Managing Director Mr TK Chiang (right) and Tung Wah Group of Hospitals Chief Executive Mr Albert Su (left) sing for guests to celebrate Senior Citizens Day.

Photo 6, Photo 7 and Photo 8

Guests are entertained with a martial arts performance by students from the TWGHs Ko Ho Ning Memorial Primary School, a Chinese Opera performance by students from the TWGHs Lui Yun Choy Memorial College, and songs from CLP volunteer Mr David Li.

Photo 9

CLP Power volunteers give practical energy saving tips to guests to help them live greener lifestyles at home.

- Ends -