CLP Power Named One of the World's Most Attractive Employers

CLP Power Hong Kong Limited (CLP Power) is recognised as one of the world's twelve most attractive employers in 2019 and inducted in the Hall of Fame for 2020/2021 by international human resources firm Randstad, becoming the first company in Hong Kong to receive this honour.

Randstad has been organising the Employer Brand Awards in Hong Kong since 2013 and CLP Power was voted as the Most Attractive Employer in Hong Kong in 2019, 2018 and 2016, reflecting voters' views of CLP Power being a company offering career development opportunities, long-term job security and healthy work-life balance, with good reputation and sound financial condition. This year CLP Power became the first company in Hong Kong to be recognised as one of the world's most attractive employers by Randstad and a member of the Randstad Hall of Fame for the year 2020 to 2021.

CLP Power Managing Director Mr T K Chiang said he felt honoured that the company has become one of the world's most attractive employers. He said: "CLP Power employs over 3,800 staff in Hong Kong, and we believe employees are our most valuable assets. This award has recognised our efforts and investments in our people development over the years. CLP Power will continue to provide a positive and harmonious working environment for our employees to perform their best every day."

To prepare for the opportunities and challenges presented by digitalisation and decarbonisation of the energy sector, CLP Power will keep up with the times to digitalise our operations and to meet the needs of our customers with innovative services. Mr Chiang added: "We encourage and support our employees to plan their own career development through a comprehensive human resources strategy. We strive to attract professionals for building a diverse workforce in order to sustain business development, and continue to provide a safe and reliable power supply."

The Randstad Employer Brand Research was launched in 2001 by international recruitment and human resources service provider Randstad. The research is now held in 33 markets worldwide to recognise the most attractive employers in each market. Companies that have won the "Most Attractive Employer" for either three consecutive times or three times in five years are inducted in the Hall of Fame. The 12 companies inducted in the Hall of Fame and recognised as the world's most attractive employers for 2019 are CLP Power (Hong Kong), Air New Zealand (New Zealand), Microsoft (USA, Canada and Portugal), Google (Switzerland and India), Philips (the Netherlands), Audi (Hungary), IKEA (Sweden), KGHM Polska Miedz (Poland), and Gazprom GazpromNef (Russia).
